

Lesson 1 – What Is a Human?

Mankind and the Image of God

The world views humanity as nothing more than a highly evolved animal, but the Bible tells a very different story. The Bible informs us that God made man to bear the image of God. But what exactly does that mean, and what difference does that make in our lives?

The Description of the Image of God

The Image of God in the _____ Testament

Many have debated what it means that man is created “in God’s image” and “after his likeness,” but the Bible doesn’t give a clear explanation of what it means to be in God’s image. All of who we are is made in the image of God. Some of the ways people have suggested man is like God include the following:

- Intellect
- Relationships
- Morality

_____ and _____ in the Image of God

The Bible is clear that “in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.” When we talk about God making “man” in his image, we need to understand this means “mankind” and includes both men and women. Some things about men uniquely display the image of God, and some things about women that uniquely display the image of God. Together men and women reflect their Creator.

The Image of God and the _____ Testament

The image of God shows up in the New Testament as well. We will spend more time in future lessons looking at many of these passages, but for now look up the following references and describe what they teach us about the image of God in man:

- 1 Corinthians 11:7
- 1 Corinthians 15:49
- 2 Corinthians 3:18
- 2 Corinthians 4:4
- Colossians 1:15
- Colossians 3:10
- James 3:9

The Application of the Image of God

We Have Special _____

- We should think rightly about our own value because we are made in the image of God.
- We should think rightly about the value of others because they are made in the image of God (Genesis 9:6; James 3:9).

We Have a Special _____

The image of God is put side by side with another important biblical concept – the dominion mandate. In Genesis 1:26a we are told about God making man in His image, and then in Genesis 1:26b we are told that man was given the task to rule over creation. We were made to be God’s representatives on earth, and as such it is our job to take care of the world God made.
