

Lesson 5 – God Is Great

Many Christians today struggle from too small a view of God. A big view of God is necessary if we are going to live faithfully for God. Those who fail to grasp how big and powerful God is will fear people, circumstances, and the world rather than God.

God's Eternality

Psalm 90:1-2 teaches that before God created the earth with its grand mountains, God has been God. The Psalmist praises God for the fact that people may come and go, will rise and fall, but God alone stands outside of time (90:3-4; cf 2 Peter 3:8). For God, a thousand years is as one day, so while people wear out and fade away and the generations march on, God remains outside of it all, unmoved.

God's Infinity

We are constantly running out of things: time, money, batteries. This makes it hard for us to relate to a God who never runs out of anything because He is infinite.

God's _____

The Bible teaches that God is everywhere present. Psalm 139 makes this point forcefully when it argues that no matter where we go, God will follow us and find us (Psalm 139:7-12).

God's _____

Scripture tells us that God's eyes are everywhere, watching everything (Proverbs 15:3). Jesus tells us that not one bird dies without God's

Lesson 5 – God Is Great

Many Christians today struggle from too small a view of God. A big view of God is necessary if we are going to live faithfully for God. Those who fail to grasp how big and powerful God is will fear people, circumstances, and the world rather than God.

God's Eternality

Psalm 90:1-2 teaches that before God created the earth with its grand mountains, God has been God. The Psalmist praises God for the fact that people may come and go, will rise and fall, but God alone stands outside of time (90:3-4; cf 2 Peter 3:8). For God, a thousand years is as one day, so while people wear out and fade away and the generations march on, God remains outside of it all, unmoved.

God's Infinity

We are constantly running out of things: time, money, batteries. This makes it hard for us to relate to a God who never runs out of anything because He is infinite.

God's _____

The Bible teaches that God is everywhere present. Psalm 139 makes this point forcefully when it argues that no matter where we go, God will follow us and find us (Psalm 139:7-12).

God's _____

Scripture tells us that God's eyes are everywhere, watching everything (Proverbs 15:3). Jesus tells us that not one bird dies without God's knowledge, and even the hairs on our head are numbered (Matthew 10:29-30). David marvels that God's knowledge of him is so thorough and is overwhelmed by this truth (Psalm 139:1-6).

God's _____

God's power is limitless. When summing up the power of God, the angel told a confused Mary "with God nothing shall be impossible" (Luke 1:37). God does whatever He so desires: "But our God is in the heavens: He hath done whatsoever he hath pleased." (Psalm 115:13)

God's Immutability

God's _____ Doesn't Change

When we say that God doesn't change, that means first and foremost His character doesn't change. Psalm 102:25-27 teaches that since God is eternal, He doesn't erode or wear out. James 1:17 ties God's unchanging nature to the good gifts He gives.

God's _____ Don't Change

When God promises something, it will certainly happen (Hebrews 6:16-18). Through Jesus Christ, God has and will fulfill every promise that He has ever made (2 Corinthians 1:20), and we as believers must live believing God's promises even when we struggle to see how God could come through (Hebrews 11:13).

God's _____ Don't Change

Sometimes God feels sorrow over sinful man's choices (Genesis 6:6; 1 Samuel 15:11). Sometimes God changes His stated plans in response to humble petition (Exodus 32:9-14; Jonah 3:10). But in both cases God's ultimate purposes remained the same – judging sin and offering forgiveness, and in both cases God remains faithful to His own character.

knowledge, and even the hairs on our head are numbered (Matthew 10:29-30). David marvels that God's knowledge of him is so thorough and is overwhelmed by this truth (Psalm 139:1-6).

God's _____

God's power is limitless. When summing up the power of God, the angel told a confused Mary "with God nothing shall be impossible" (Luke 1:37). God does whatever He so desires: "But our God is in the heavens: He hath done whatsoever he hath pleased." (Psalm 115:13)

God's Immutability

God's _____ Doesn't Change

When we say that God doesn't change, that means first and foremost His character doesn't change. Psalm 102:25-27 teaches that since God is eternal, He doesn't erode or wear out. James 1:17 ties God's unchanging nature to the good gifts He gives.

God's _____ Don't Change

When God promises something, it will certainly happen (Hebrews 6:16-18). Through Jesus Christ, God has and will fulfill every promise that He has ever made (2 Corinthians 1:20), and we as believers must live believing God's promises even when we struggle to see how God could come through (Hebrews 11:13).

God's _____ Don't Change

Sometimes God feels sorrow over sinful man's choices (Genesis 6:6; 1 Samuel 15:11). Sometimes God changes His stated plans in response to humble petition (Exodus 32:9-14; Jonah 3:10). But in both cases God's ultimate purposes remained the same – judging sin and offering forgiveness, and in both cases God remains faithful to His own character.