

CONCLUSION

- One of the most beautiful truths of salvation is that God has done _____ necessary to remove the sin barrier to a relationship with Him.
- The presence of the Holy Spirit in God's people _____ us to fulfill the mission of God, thus giving us a purpose beyond our own salvation.

UNIT 3: Behold the Lamb!

DATE: March 15, 2015

LESSON 10: "Behold the Lamb!" (John 1:29-42)

NEXT WEEK: "The Bread of Life" (John 6:25-58)

INTRODUCTION

- Throughout the biblical story line, we've seen how the _____ served as a picture of innocence and sacrifice.
- The blood that flowed from a spotless lamb reminded observers that forgiveness of sins could not come without _____.
- "Believing, then, is directing the heart's attention to Jesus. It is lifting the mind to 'behold the Lamb of God,' and never ceasing that beholding for the rest of our lives." ~ A. W. Tozer (1897-1963)

JESUS IS THE LAMB WHO TAKES AWAY THE _____ OF THE WORLD (JOHN 1:29).

- John's use of the "Lamb of God" title and the imagery of sin being taken away remind us of the Day of _____ (Yom Kippur).
- There were two goats involved in the sacrifice, and the goats displayed different aspects of what must take place for sins to be _____.

- The Sacrifice — _____: a turning away of God's wrath from the guilty to the substitute.
- The Scapegoat — _____: the removal of sins from the guilty to a substitute sin-bearer.
- So one goat showed that sin must be punished, and the other showed that sin must be taken away.
- Jesus eternally satisfied God's righteous wrath by fulfilling the dual roles of the forsaken animal who takes away sin and the sacrificial

JESUS IS THE LAMB WHO BAPTIZES WITH THE _____ (JOHN 1:30-34).

- Jesus is divine.
  - When we see ourselves in light of who Jesus is, we should respond with a humble attitude that leads to _____.
  - The Spirit's descent upon Jesus confirmed that He was the Anointed One of God, the _____ who had been promised those many years ago in the Garden of Eden.

- Jesus baptizes with the Holy Spirit.
  - When we enter into a relationship with God through Jesus, we receive the promise of God's Spirit _____ us.
  - God now dwells in the hearts of His people, and His presence goes with us as we live out His command to make _____.

JESUS IS THE LAMB WHO CALLS PEOPLE TO A LIFE OF _____ (JOHN 1:35-42).

- Disciples of Jesus must be committed to the _____ of their Savior and Lord.
- When we enter into a relationship with God through Jesus, we are committing to become like _____. His way of life becomes our way of life. His love becomes our love. His mission becomes our mission.
- For those of us who trust in the Lamb of God to take away our sin, our identity becomes wrapped up in all that Jesus is.
- "Our job is not to transform people into Christians nor to convict them of their sin. It is not our responsibility to make people do what they ought to do. Our task is to bring them to Jesus, and He will perform His divine work in their lives." ~ Henry Blackaby
